Technostyle is published three times a year. Each issue presents articles on the teaching of scientific and business writing in Canadian colleges and universities as well as articles identifying writing skills demanded from the professional at work in Canada. Submissions should be sent to the Editor, Secretarial and Administrative Studies, University of Western Ontario, London, Ontario, N6A 5C2.

Technostyle est une revue trimestrielle. Chaque numéro des articles traitent des problèmes rencontrés par les professeurs de rédaction technique et scientifique enseignant cette discipline aux universités et aux collèges canadiens. La revue publie aussi articles sur les compétences en rédaction qui sont exigées du professionnel par le marché canadien du travail. Les manuscrits soumis pour publication doivent être envoyés au Rédacteur en chef, Secretarial and Administrative Studies, University of Western Ontario, London, Ontario, N6A 5C2.

Technostyle is published with the financial assistance of the Department of Secretarial and Administrative Studies, University of Western Ontario. Thanks to Wendy Bichard for preparing copy on the Microm 2002.
